Communities Benefit from Water Fluoridation Water fluoridation is safe, effective, and saves communities money.

On average, communities with water fluoridation experience: fewer cavities than communities without water fluoridation A return of leading to: for every $1 invested • Less pain Less expensive dental • Less fillings and teeth pulled • Less missed days of school treatments needed Saves communities and and work families money A Ħ Water fluoridation improves oral health and reaches everyone in the community.

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Visit www.cdc.gov/fluoridation for information about community water fluoridation.